

PALM COURT PERFORMANCE SERIES PRODUCED BY EMILIO ESTEFAN

Palm Court Performance Series is a weekly Friday night ensemble of live musical performances, open to the public and produced by 19-time Grammy© Award winning producer Emilio Estefan in collaboration with the Miami Design District.

Expanding on the theme of Estefan Kitchen's live entertainment, Emilio Estefan will curate the weekly series to showcase some of Miami's brightest and hottest musical talent, including critically acclaimed rising star Emily Estefan.

"I'm happy to bring this performance series to the Miami Design District, as it will showcase the great, diverse musical talent coming out of Miami," comments Emilio Estefan. "The neighborhood is established for its diverse cultural offerings and unique happenings and now we can add musical performances to the over-all experience."

The Miami Symphony Orchestra (MISO) is kicking off the series this Friday, April 7 with their fourth distinct Pop-Up concert, Golden Sounds from Hollywood, led by Music Director & Conductor Maestro Eduardo Marturet. And on April 14, 80's and 90's Retro Night will feature Project Soul, South Florida's Hottest Powerhouse Party Band. The following week on April 21 there will be a live performance from University of Miami's Frost School of Music's Afro-Caribbean Jazz ensemble, under the direction of Grammy© Award-winner Bryan Lynch.

On April 28, French Caravan and Julito Martinez (El Peregrino) & Trio Tiempo Al Tiempo. Julito toured with Buena Vista Social Club, the iconic Cuban band, will play a musical fusion of jazz. Estefan's daughter, Emily, fresh off the heels of her debut album, Take Whatever You Want, will give a live concert on May 5.

With Happy Hour specials at Estefan Kitchen starting at 3:00pm and live musical performances starting at 5:00pm, The Palm Court performance series is the perfect way to kick off your weekend.

The Miami Design District's Palm Court is located at 140 NE 39th Street, Miami, FL 33137. The Palm Court Performance Series is sponsored by Miami Design District, Estefan Kitchen and Haute Living.
